

HAGGIS HUNT

BIG BURNS SUPPER

Someone's pinched a spare ukulele from the Ukulele Orchestra of Great Britain's dressing room! We had a look at the CCTV and the culprit was seen to be.. A Haggis? All of Hamish the Haggis's family are out in Dumfries to see Hamish during the festival, it must be one of them! Ask every Haggis in town if they know who the culprit is, and hurry, before they get away..

Take a selfie at the start of the hunt at Theatre Royal and post to the Haggis Hunt Facebook page. Make sure to do it again once you find the thieving haggis!

Please be safe online. You must ask your parents permission before posting a selfie online. A private message is perfectly acceptable instead of a photo!
