THANK YOU!

We wish to pay tribute to everyone who makes the festival possible each year, our incredible partners, sponsors, artists and our loyal band of volunteers who make Big Burns Supper Festival what it is. We also wish to thank you, our audience and participants who have helped us grow the festival since 2011.

Welcome!

We are delighted to present our 5th edition of the Big Burns Supper Festival which takes place from the 22nd – 30th January, across Dumfries. In five years, we have become one of Scotland's leading Festivals – and earned the title of the biggest Burns Night Celebration on the planet.

Our glittering Spiegeltent will be jam packed with shows that will send your pulses racing and entertain you throughout the entire Festival.

Our Award Winning Le Haggis is back, and we will be launching two brand new shows which will have the same fast paced style.

Celtic Circus, especially for families, and produced by the same company, will catapult children and their families into an interactive céilidh, with artists spinning from every corner of the Spiegeltent.

High Tea is our new Vintage production which we will present in the afternoons, and includes our traditional afternoon tea, presented with tea and delicious cake.

Children and young people will lead the entire Carnival on Sunday 24th January through Dumfries town centre, and we have two new interactive projects created entirely by children, in Salon 1962 which will see children cutting hair, and offering a range of beauty services. Dinners by Children returns, as the project was in such high demand last year.

The Spiegeltent Site is open from 10.00am each day, and you can grab food and drink from our Cafe there.

Our Music programme has something for everyone – and you have to check out Treacherous Orchestra who will simply blow your minds with their high energy Scottish music. Their 11 piece band is like nothing you will see anywhere in the world. We are also thrilled to present the sultry Camille O'Sullivan, who will show you what a Spiegeltent is really made for.

Our Free Fringe events will take place throughout Dumfries in a variety of different places, and our Lantern Making workshops will take place for the three weeks leading up to our magical Carnival.

Getting tickets is as easy as ever, and our Box Office is located on the corner of Queensberry Street and Munches Street, and is open from 9-5, Monday to Saturday. You can buy tickets over the phone by calling 01387 271820, or you can buy them online at our website www.bigburnssupper.com

We encourage you to invite as many of your friends and families to Dumfries for the Festival, as this is the time that we show off our charming town to the entire world.

On behalf of us all – thank you for letting us entertain you, and we look forward to bumping into you throughout the Festival.

Scotland's award winning 5-Star Cabaret makes its homecoming to its place of birth. It is the sexy centre piece to the entire Festival, and it has become the contemporary way to celebrate Burns Night. From sell out performances at Edinburgh Fringe Festival - the show is back with a brand new version exclusively for BBS16, featuring a stunning line-up of international stars. We encourage all our audience to dress to impress with a touch of tartan. To not wear tartan would leave one exposed, so to speak.

The 2016 version has been changed and will not include food - please note that our Spiegeltent Village will include a café - where food can be purchased ahead of the show.

Black Grape, feature former members of Happy Mondays and Ruthless Rap Assassins. The group's music is funky and eclectic, using varied instrumentation and samples. Following their 20th anniversary and they are about to unleash a mad carnival that disregards boundaries between rap, house, rock, soul, and pop.

Black Grape's debut album, It's Great When You're Straight...Yeah was a surreal, funky, profane, and perversely joyous album, overflowing with casual eclecticism and giddy humour.

Shaun Ryder is best known as the lead singer of the Happy Mondays and Black Grape, and for being the runner-up of the tenth series of I'm a Celebrity...Get Me Out of Here!

Bay City Rollers

Spiegeltent

Saturday 23rd: 9pm

£28.50 Standing Tickets
(Private Booths available to buy)

The Bay City Rollers are a Scottish pop band whose popularity was highest in the mid 1970s. The British Hit Singles & Albums noted that they were “tartan teen sensations from Edinburgh”, and were “the first of many acts heralded as the ‘biggest group since the Beatles’ and one of the most screamed-at teeny-bopper acts of the 1970s”. For a relatively brief but fervent period (nicknamed “Rollermania”), they were worldwide teen idols.

Rollermania is about to hit Big Burns Supper as the band take us through their iconic pop factory which will include popular hits like Shang-A-Lang, Bye Bye Baby, I only wanna be with you, Keen on Dancing and Saturday Night. We think it only right that our audience dress in tartan for their Dumfries event.

Carnival

Dumfries: Buccleuch St & White Sands
Sunday 24th: 5pm
Free

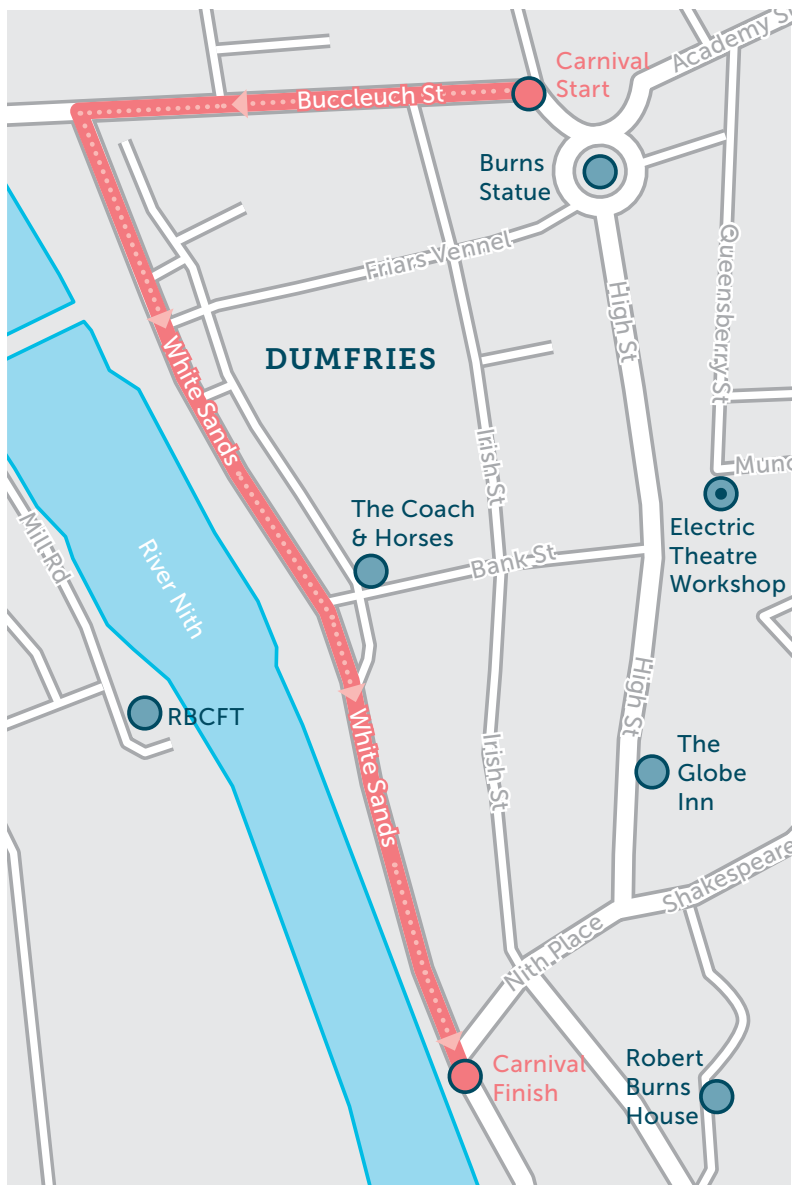

Our Carnival has become the biggest event we produce each year, and last year thousands of people took to the streets to see the magical show that we take six months to create. This year our theme is Musical Revolution, and our artists are working throughout winter, to pull the stops out for the show.

Our Community Hub is open night and day for anyone who wants to volunteer with our artists and we have specialist drop in nights for young people.

Drop In Nights for Young People
Tue (Under 15's); Thur (Over 15's)

Drop In Times
Mon: 9.00 - 21.00; Wed 9.00 - 21.00

This year, staging the Carnival, we have over 14 Primary schools: Cargenbridge, Calside, Georgetown, Heathhall, Laurieknowe, Lincluden, Lochside, Locharbriggs, Loreburne, Noblehill, Troqueer, Sanquhar, St. Andrews and St. Ninians; along with 4 High Schools: Dumfries Academy, Maxwelltown High School, Dumfries High School and St. Josephs School.

Lantern Making Workshops ////

Making lanterns for this year's Carnival is going to be easier than ever. With 24 hubs running throughout January, you can either drop into one of the community hubs, or sign your group to take part at your own venue. You can show up at any of the hub locations.

We will have a team of artists at all of our hubs, and all of the materials are provided free of charge. There will be lantern making workshops happening in some of our schools, but these are not open to the public. The hubs are for absolutely anybody, so why not bring your neighbour or granny along too?

AnDa Union are part of a musical movement that is finding inspiration in old and forgotten songs, drawing on a repertoire of magical music that had all but disappeared during China's recent tumultuous past. AnDa Union hold on to the essence of Mongolian music whilst creating a form of music that is new. AnDa Union combine different traditions and styles of music from all over Inner and Outer Mongolia, developing an innovation previously unheard of. The very existence of a music group like AnDa Union is new to Inner Mongolia:

"Our music draws from all the Mongol tribes that Genghis Khan unified. We all have different ethnic backgrounds and we bring these influences into our music. There is a wealth of folk music for us to learn, so far our repertoire of songs is like a drop in the ocean"

One of the biggest bands of the 2-Tone movement, The Beat present a wall of sound that transcends time and ska fusion rhythms to ignite a crowd. The 2016 line-up features Ranking Roger and Ranking Junior on vocals with Oscar Harrison on drums, Andy Pearson and Steve Harper on guitars.

The Beat are known the world over for a string of hit singles, including "Mirror in the Bathroom", "Too Nice To Talk To", "Can't Get Used To Losing You", "Hands off She's Mine" and "All Out To Get You". Their songs of peace, love and unity fuse ska, pop, reggae and punk rock and their dynamic live show.

Their first single was an arresting version of Smokey Robinson's "Tears Of A Clown", given a completely new feel, and was backed with their own composition "Ranking Full Stop". The single stormed into the Top 10 in December 1979, and saw the band appear twice on Top Of The Pops.

- ★★★★★ Songlines

Treacherous Orchestra's story is one of many strands. An un-definable collective force fusing people, concepts, styles and influences, shaping a musical super group that defies description. Their album Grind is listed; Album of the Year at the Scot's Trad Music Awards.

"Treacherous makes a very Scottish trance music with fevered banjo and accordion motifs, highly charged bagpipe licks, and driving and sometimes charmingly wayward fiddle lines. The sound is very industrial, as well as industrious, yet there's much joyfulness and emotional release as well as reflective links and gentler acoustic passages for contrast. The result is a strong, focused statement that's almost a metaphor for Scottish self-sufficiency, in musical terms certainly, and as a listening experience, it's quite a journey."

- ★★★★ The Scotsman
- ★★★★ The Guardian
- ★★★★ The Herald

Eddi Reader MBE is a Scottish singer-songwriter, known both for her work with Fairground Attraction and for an enduring solo career. She is the recipient of three BRIT Awards and has topped both the album and singles charts. In 2003 she showcased the works of Scotland's national poet, Robert Burns.

In the early 1980s, she travelled around Europe with circus and performance artists before moving to London, where she quickly became a sought after session vocalist. She famously harmonised with Annie Lennox touring with the Eurythmics, after her time with successful punk outfit Gang of Four, but it was warmly remembered Fairground Attraction that really brought her to the attention of a much wider audience. The single Perfect and album First of a Million Kisses both topped the British charts.

Children £5.50

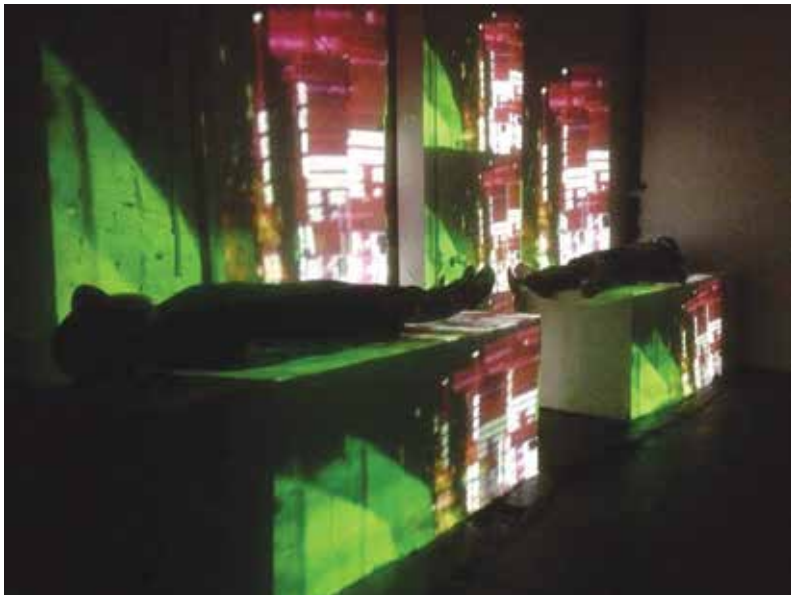

Adults £7.50

When Eloise is tasked with showing new girl, Beth, around the school, she takes her to the "Hackerspace" where her and her gang of nerdy friends hang out - a disused portacabin they've turned into a student-run IT lab. Although the gang call themselves Hackers, their activities are entirely harmless...

Until the gang's self-elected leader, Archie, is humiliated by the school bully and Beth inspires them to use their tech-savviness to avenge him. Revelling in their newfound power, the group allow Beth to lead them in an increasingly dangerous direction. With Archie usurped and everyone in Beth's thrall, just what kind of hackers will they become and what will it take to stop them?

Saturday 30th: 9pm

Adults £5.50

Luxe is a brand new piece of performance art which has been created by emerging artists, The Mad Jakals. The piece of work is part installation, and part performance and it's been designed to allow the audience to suspend reality, by entering a world of thoughtfulness which is created by manipulating uncertainty through digital trickery, visuals and the imagination. It's a perfect remedy for our hectic festival schedule.

Luxe was supported by Yellow Door Gallery during its original development.

Instruments of Torture

Electric Theatre Workshop

Tuesday 26th: 6pm

Wednesday 27th: 6pm

Concession £6.00

Adults £7.50

Be warned. This performance may contain bagpipes. It may contain screechy violins, snapping strings, resin, and the echoes of next door neighbour's 3am music. This performance may contain tone deaf karaoke, back seat car music, the half-forgotten tunes you mouthed along in assembly and national anthems to pluck at your heartstrings.

"Instruments of Torture takes a powerfully-choreographed 50 minutes to expose the interface between militaristic violence and human creativity by deliberately merging images of 21st century soldiers preparing for war, musicians playing and people arming themselves for a night out. Intense... thought-provoking... beautiful."

Monday 25th: All Day

Haircuts by Children £6.50

Beauty by Children £6.50

Salon 1962 is an interactive experience that you will never forget in a hurry and for an entire day, primary school children will take over a hair and beauty salon and will be providing treatments for the daring amongst us. Whatever you chose to have done, the young people in this Salon will make your visit extremely memorable. Please note that appointments are not always necessary, but we would advise clients to book in advance.

Would you be brave enough to let a child cut your hair, or touch your feet? Will you feel the pressure of having to make conversation, or will the roles reverse completely?

All proceeds from this show will go to support Lochside Primary school funds.
