The Festival Site: Our winter site is located on Brewery Street at the Whitesands where you can find both our venues bursting with entertainment. Our opening hours are 10am until 11pm from Monday to Wednesday and 10am until 3am on Thursday to Sunday.

Box Office And Tickets: Our pop-up box office which is located in Dumfries Town Centre is open between 10am and 4pm, Monday to Saturday from December. Tickets can also be purchased online at www.bigburnssupper.com or by calling 01387 271820.

You are required to bring printed tickets to all events you are attending. If you have a ticket saved on your electronic device, please make sure it is clear to read. You can also get your tickets printed in person at the box office if you are unable to print at home. You do not require tickets for free events. This year, you can collect your wristbands for any show you are attending on the day of the event by visiting our on-site box office. This will allow you to collect all of your wristbands ahead of the show, and avoid the queue.

Babes In Arms: Babes in arms go free to all of our events.

Children: We encourage kids to all of our shows, except where we have identified the show to have adult content. Many of our shows operate a Kids Go Free policy, as well as free for babes in arms – we do however encourage parents to use discretion if a child is making a little too much noise, so that the audience members can fully enjoy the show.

Photographs: Most artists welcome you taking pictures of them at the start of the show, but please do put your phones and cameras away. We do not own the material which the artist is using, so you are potentially in breach of copyright laws if you film someone without their consent.

Welcome!

Welcome to the ninth edition of the Big Burns Supper Festival, one of Scotland's most intimate festivals which takes place in one of Scotland's most creative places, Dumfries.

The Free Festival Hub is open night and day, packed full of incredible music and comedy from the Borderlands of Dumfries, Galloway & Cumbria. You don't need a ticket to get in and our festival bar and café are serving food and drinks all day long.

Burns Night is going to be one of the biggest parties we have ever staged, featuring a dynamic roster of big names alongside some local favourites.

Families can enjoy non-stop action throughout the festival and, at the weekends, we have amazing free shows in the festival hub to keep everyone amused. We've even created a family edition of Le Haggis for the festival. Sunday Sessions starts at the slightly later time of 2pm, and we are proud to welcome the utterly amazing Peat and Diesel who are headlining our closing party.

Our brand new Private Lounge Experience means you and your friends can hire your own party space, complete with champagne waiters and your own entertainment.

Big Burns Supper is a community project made possible because hundreds of volunteers come out and make it all possible. Together with our incredible partners and sponsors, they have created one of the coolest festivals in the world. We are forever grateful for their commitment.

KEB' MO'

We couldn't be more excited to present a modern master of American roots music in the incredible and intimate setting of the Spiegeltent.

Keb' Mo' arrived on the scene in the early 1990's and soon earned a reputation for his mastery of multiple blues styles as well as his ability to combine traditional approaches with a contemporary attitude, and his timeless storytelling sensibility.

His list of collaborations features a who's who in the music industry and includes Bonnie Raitt, Taj Mahal, Vince Gill, and Bobby Rush to name a few.

GARY STEWART'S GRACELAND

If you'd have to pick ten seminal albums from the 1980's – chances are you'd pick Paul Simon's Graceland as one.

The American songwriter has worked with South African musicians to create something unique: his ambiguous, quirky lyrics were matched by pumping rhythms and the gorgeous vocals of Lady Smith Black Mambazo.

Gary Stewart, a Scotsman now residing in Yorkshire, and drummer with Hope And Social, has devised a project that affectionately runs through Simon's album. Backed by his incredible 7-piece band, this spectacular group of musicians come together to recreate Paul Simon's landmark Graceland album in all its glory.

BURNS NIGHT LIVE

We have never been shy in shouting about us being the centre of all global Burns Night celebrations, and this year will be no exception. Kicking off at 7pm, we are about to present our biggest ever party running for a whopping eight hours of pure and un-adulterated Burns Night mayhem. We are incredibly pleased to bring you more artists than you can shake a stick at for this year's party, including a twelve-piece one-off homage to Robert Burns himself.

Newton Faulkner

Newton Faulkner is an English singer-songwriter and musician from Reigate, Surrey. He is known for his percussive style of guitar playing. In 2007 Faulkner's debut studio album Hand Built by Robots was certified double platinum in the United Kingdom. The album topped the UK Albums Chart in August 2007. It was promoted by three singles, "Dream Catch Me", "I Need Something", and "Teardrop". "Dream Catch Me" reached number seven on the UK Singles Charts.

Band of Burns ★★☆☆ Guardian

Band of Burns is a one off collaboration with members from Afro Celt Sound System, The Langan Band and The Breath turning their hand to some of Robert Burns most powerful songs. Band of Burns is a collaboration of twelve artists from the top echelons of the folk scene, coming together to perform a truly distinct show which celebrates the life, works and philosophies of Robert Burns. Bringing elements of the musical traditions of their homelands; Scotland, Ireland, England, Wales, and Turkey, the band originally formed for two shows last January.

"A shimmering collection that does full justice to the poet's humane vision"

The Times

"Band of Burns take few prisoners with their raucous, partying dance tunes"

The Herald

RURA ★★☆☆ Skinny / Wee Review

One of the most exciting bands on the Scottish folk scene, and fresh off the stages of both Celtic Connections and Cambridge Folk Festival. RURA are a multi award-winning act, and one of Scotland's most popular folk-based bands.

"A brilliant fusion of the old and the new"

The Herald

"Accomplished musicianship. Supremely impressive" FolkWords

"One of the most exciting bands of the Scottish folk scene" SongLines

Turbyne

Turbyne are a metal band, currently based in Dumfries. Drawing influence from both heavy and progressive musical styles, and always taking metal to strange and scary new places, playing the Spiegeltent.

Kate Kyle

Kate Kyle has been shortlisted for the prestigious BBC Radio Scotland Singer/Songwriter award earlier this year and has been making appearances at events throughout Scotland.

SALSA WORKSHOP DANCE & LUNCH

This show includes a seven-piece Salsa Band. Salsa is a popular form of social dance originating in Eastern Cuba. The Salsa we hear now is said to be born in New York to a mixture of Afro Cuban folk dances with Jazz.

This is a great experience, where it does not matter a tomato salsa whether you can dance or not. When the music is this good, no-one will even notice.

We will start the day at Carindale Hotel for the salsa dance workshop between 9am and 10.30am before making our way to the Spiegeltent for 11am for a buffet, live salsa band and a chance to put your moves to the test!

MASSAOKE

Massaoke is the live band, sing-along sensation that's sweeping the UK, from Glastonbury Festival to Edinburgh Fringe.

What's Massaoke? This amazing live band plays the greatest pop, indie and rock anthems of all time and the crowd sings along, guided by big screen lyrics.

There's no dreaded karaoke spotlight here - this is Massaoke, where everyone sings and dances their hearts out together in a unique live-gig atmosphere. The result is a euphoric celebration of some of the best songs ever written and an unforgettable night out.

"The euphoria of a mass karaoke sesh with your mates - on steroids"

GREAT SCOTT!

THE FELICE BROTHERS

We're bringing you some incredible folk-rock music to start your Sunday evening, all the way from the Catskill Mountains in New York.

The Felice Brothers started their career playing in a subway in New York City, inspired by Hart Crane and Whitman, Gurthie and Chuck Berry. They've since went on to release 9 albums and tour across the world, including festivals such as Bonaroo, All Points West and Newport Folk Festival.

In May 2019, the band comprising of brothers Ian and James Felice - joined by Will Lawrence and Jesske Hume - released their newest album, Featuring songs wonderfully served by banjo, accordion, pedal steel, various horns, keyboards, guitars and shuffling rhythms which proliferate throughout.

MOULIN ROUGE IMMERSIVE EXPERIENCE

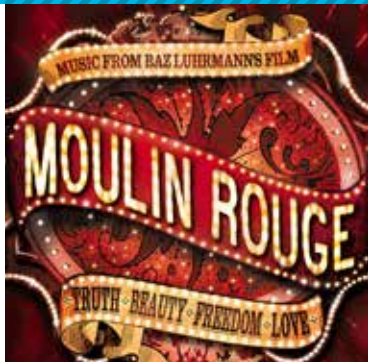

A jukebox-musical-theatrical-extravaganza immersive experience that will transport you to the underworld of the Parisian cabaret, served on a silver platter of complete decadence. A young Englishman in the Paris of 1899 becomes infatuated with Satine, a signer at the Moulin Rouge. However, she has been promised by the manager to a Duke in return for funding his next production. As the young lovers meet in secret, Satine's wedding day draws closer but she hides a fatal secret from both Christian and the Duke.

This is a heady combination of both musical and cabaret, with plenty of treats in between with four hours-worth of entertainment served in one of the most stunning venues in the world.

We encourage all of our patrons to dress up for this event. For tips on costumes and what to wear, go and check out our event page on our website.

LINDY HOP DANCE WORKSHOP AND DINNER

We once said that Participation is a mandatory part of the Big Burns Supper and this year we are proud to launch a whole evening dedicated to Lindy Hop Dancing.

The evening will start with a workshop for any level and then culminates with a dance session with a live band.

The Lindy hop is an American dance which was born in Harlem, New York City, in 1928 and has evolved since then with the jazz music of that time. It was very popular during the swing era of the late 1930s and early 1940s

MR. B THE GENTLEMAN RHYMER

We're bringing you something completely different to kick-start your Thursday night with the incredible Chap-Hop performance of Mr. B The Professional Rhymmer. Mr.B began his Chap-Hop career in the summer of 2007 when he decided to bring elements of his previous incarnations (UK rapper, jump-up breaks producer, banjolele maverick and dandy) together and create a genre. Mr B has travelled the world, from Surrey to Osaka, Banstead to Berlin, Middlesbrough to Minneapolis, Norway to New York and the Edinburgh Fringe to Glastonbury bringing his beats, rhymes and manners. As well as songs about cricket, pipe smoking, high society and interfering with livestock.

MORCHEEBA

Let us take you back to the mid 1990's with what is possibly our biggest show to date. Join us as trip hop pioneers, Morcheeba, take the stage in the incredible Spiegeltent for a 75 minute performance that will blow you away.

Since forming in 1995 the duo have released 8 albums and toured the world multiple times, selling out some of the biggest venues to exist. Skye Edwards has one of the most recognisable voices on the planet, and hearing her smooth, effortless tone teamed with Ross Godfrey's psychedelic guitar is an unforgettable, spellbinding experience.

THE UPCOMING

ONR AND HARDWICKE CIRCUS DOUBLE BILL

We're bringing you two of the most exciting bands to come from The Borderlands with our ONR and Hardwicke Circus double bill. We feel like we are doing a bit of speed-dating with this one. Both acts are probably about to hit the big time, so we were like... 'you guys should like do a gig together!'

Dumfries born and bred, ONR will open the set, with an indie-electronica set, fresh from a European tour supporting Bastille, and following Morcheeba.

"Edgy alternative rock with electronic undertones" The Sun

Carlisle locals Hardwicke Circus will be taking to the stage after a year of opening for some of the biggest acts in the world such as Bob Dylan and Neil Young, as well as Black Grape and Madness with their 7-piece, blues-rock sound.

"Imagine The Rolling Stones creating an album with The Doors jamming with Primal Scream" Slap Magazine

ALL EDINBURGH THEATRE

LE HAGGIS

We're thrilled to present our latest edition of this home-grown gem of a line-up show. Every year we scout the globe for the weird and the wonderful and we blend it all together with a wee dram of Caledonia. This year we welcome Face the West who will be bringing their intoxicating sound all the way from Stornoway. Now in it's eighth year – Le Haggis has become as celebrated as the festival itself, and every year we create a brand new version which is true to its original idea. At the heart of the show is our belief that the old fashioned Scottish songs are just as relevant today as they ever were, and we stir them up with a rampant tonic of pure, undiluted hedonism.

SKERRYVORE

Representing the best of contemporary Scottish traditional music, Skerryvore are back in the Spiegel tent for another lively, and loud, late night performance.

Take two brothers - Daniel and Martin (accordion, pipes and whistle) - steeping in the Scottish West Coast ceilidh tradition on the Isle of Tiree; and add in friends Fraser (drums) and Alex (guitars and vocals) with a background in brass bands, wind bands, jazz bands and with blues, folk and country influences and you have the embryonic Skerryvore.

EUROPA PICNIC!

Brexit is confronted head on as the community of Dumfries will come together on the 31st January as part of Europa Picnic – a farewell to Europe! The local community will join forces with artists, poets and songwriters to pen a community wide poem, marking our potential last days. We will lead a community of artists through a 2 hour verse devoted to Europe. Audiences will be able to take part live online.

This will be a massive coming together, curated by the community for all the world to see that borders and boundaries will not defeat the spirit of peace and prosperity.

We are also opening a Farewell to Europe book which you can sign.

We encourage you to dress up in your finest European costumes, and to contribute to our European picnic.

This event is ticketed, but free. School groups can register to attend through our Box Office.

DOONHAME & DIRTY WITH BIG SMOKE BRASS BAND

We've finally lost the plot and given the worst Drag Queen in the history of Queer Cabaret a show of her own. This year she is going to spice things up in her own irrelevant way. Featuring a star studded line up of characters you really don't want to meet at any time of the day.

This is cabaret at its best.

It's late and live and it is full of naughty surprises.

GLEN MILLER ORCHESTRA

We are bursting with excitement to present this incredible experience in the Spiegeltent which is sure to take you back in time like no other show can. Sit back and soak up the unique atmosphere of the 1940's with this magical orchestral sensation.

The Glenn Miller Orchestra was formed in 1988 in conjunction with Glenn Miller Productions of New York. The Glenn Miller Orchestra UK has maintained the exact line-up on stage devised by Glenn, consisting of the leader, five saxophones, four trumpets, four trombones and three rhythm plus a male and female vocalist.

The singers perform both individually and as part of The Moonlight Serenaders vocal group. The Uptown Hall Gang - an outstanding Dixieland group drawn from members of the orchestra is also featured.

Why not top up the experience by ordering an afternoon tea, served by our Ladies of Distinction.

Afternoon tea is limited to pre-order only.

ELEPHANT SESSIONS

WINNERS OF THE BBC
SCOTS TRAD MUSIC AWARDS
'ALBUM OF THE YEAR' 2017 AND
'LIVE ACT OF THE YEAR' 2018

Hailing from the Highlands of Scotland the band formed in 2012. They are comprised of Euan Smillie (fiddle), Alasdair Taylor (mandolin), Mark Bruce (guitar), Seth Tinsley (bass, synth) and Greg Barry (drums, samples). Creating a progressive blend of intricate tunes, engulfing guitars, with a bass and drum heavy backline, their music combines the very best of trad, funk and electronica resulting in a new and exciting sound. Giggling extensively around the UK, they swiftly built a fan base and went on to release their debut album The Elusive Highland Beauty in 2014 to critical acclaim.

"Mercury prize winning band Alt-J, along with BBC Radio 2 and BBC Radio 6, found themselves converted to the band's unique brand of indie folk." The Wee Review

ELECTRIC SWING CIRCUS

Why not end your Saturday night with a live 6-piece fusion of saucy 20's swing, and stomping electro beats.

Drawing influence from 1920's swing and jazz, the explosive sound of Electric Swing Circus reverberates back through time, re-inventing the genre of electro-swing, all in the stunning backdrop of the Spiegeltent.

The ESC's sound is a powerful combination of electric double bass, vintage samples, gypsy-jazz guitar, keys, live drums, dirty synths and electro beats. Fronted by a sassy female double-act, with extensive variety of vocal styles, the ESC delivers a consistently dazzling show. Ladies and gentlemen, hold on to your hats. The circus is coming to town!

Please note this show is 1am on Sunday 2nd February.

Come party with us on Saturday 1st and keep going until the early hours!

FAMILE HAGGIS

You might think we have finally cracked up? After years of constant begging from parents and round table discussions with some of Scotland's top legal experts, we are finally ready to release our new offspring through the creation of a family friendly Le Haggis.

Using the idea of Le Haggis, this family friendly show infuses all the traditions of the award winning show in an entirely new format, and with a special guest appearance by the legendary, Hamish the Haggis.

Running for one show only, it's time to let the next generation in on the fun.

SUNDAY SESSIONS: CLOSING PARTY WITH PETE AND DIESEL

The Festival's Sunday Sessions has grown massively since we first started, and it is our iconic closing party to the festival. This year we have also split the day in two to allow families the time to come and enjoy a second Family Sunday with lots of free entertainment geared towards children, as well as some free entertainment.

Headlining the Sunday Sessions are Peat & Diesel, from Stornoway, playing some homemade songs that tell stories in a funny kind of way about the island life. They have just sold out a run of gigs including the Glasgow Barrowlands and we are delighted that they will be closing the Festival in Big Burns Supper style. The show kicks off at 2pm and will be announcing the full line up closer to the event.

An Audience with Pamela McLellan – Six Five Special

Thur 30th Jan: 7.30pm
£10

It all started in the late 1950s – Rock and Roll Music, pirate Radio Stations, dance halls and village hops where you could dance the night away. Pop singers recording on vinyl records competed for the No.1 spot on the Top of the Hit parade and the teenagers bought their records every week. Jack Good of the BBC brought out the first Rock and Roll programme on Television in 1957 and it was an instant success, teenagers loved it. It was introduced by Pete Murray with the immortal words:- 'It's time to jive on the old Six Five.' So let us take you on a musical journey down memory lane. Lots of hit songs of the time, Dream Lover, Locomotion, Singing the Blues, Lipstick on your collar, Johnny B. Goode & lots more, including some new rock and roll songs.

Creative Martyrs

Fri 31st Jan: 7.30pm
£12

The Creative Martyrs are a Glasgow based Cabaret duo specialising in fine song, surrealism and satire. Performing darkly humorous songs on the ukulele and cello they present a show containing some of their most popular and catchiest tunes from the last decade. Join them for a Weimar Kabarett style evening of comedic song, satirical silliness, democratic participation and all round entertainment! From 1883 to the present day the Creative Martyrs have been singing songs of wry observation and suggestions of repeating histories. So fortunate we have all learned from our mistakes, the world is such a more peaceful and kinder place as such, myriad wonderful futures await. They have appeared on Radio 4, at T in the Park and at the Edinburgh Fringe since 2010 to consistent 4 and 5 star reviews.
